Questions of the reviewer

Could you assess if there would be any change in your recommendation for the post-pandemic situation on the labour market as well on the customers segment?

answered partially

Questions of the supervisor - Maršíková

There are described benefits and challenges of the workplace diversity in the theoretical part of the thesis (chapter 1). Which benefits and challenges have you identified in the diversity management in the branch of KFC analysed in the thesis?

answered

Malíková

On the page 50 you mentioned that the branch of KFC situated at the heart of Prague "Andel" is considered the top five highest revenue earned branches all over the Czech Republic. Can you argue this and how much it earns?
