Questions and comments related to the diploma thesis defence:

What steps can be taken to reduce the final risk value of the outsourcing?

In the theoretical part, have you defined basic mistakes in outsourcing, did your chosen company do any of them? If yes, analyse the case into detail.

I recommend - ~~do not recommend~~* the diploma thesis for defence.

The goal of the presented diploma thesis was the evaluation of the advantageousness of outsourcing in the selected company and improvement potential suggestions. The defined main goal of the diploma thesis can be considered as fulfilled. The student has chosen appropriate methods of scientific work. The theoretical part is clearly elaborated, the chapters logically follow one another. The theoretical part of the work is an excellent starting point for the practical part. The ratio of the practical and theoretical part of the work is absolutely optimal. Only some of the tables are harder to read because of the choice of font colour. This work meets the requirements for a diploma thesis, and therefore I recommend it for defence.
