Questions related to the diploma thesis defence:

- 1) How would you explain rapid decrease of sales in China from the PEST analysis point of view?
- 2) From the PEST analysis point of view, is the market in Vietnam somehow different from China?
- 3) Was some kind of cost analysis carried out for a certain flow of (semi)products and a proposed supply chain?

I recommend the diploma thesis for defence.

I suggest to evaluate the diploma thesis with the grade: 1 = Excellent

The diploma thesis of Zuzana Drboutová deals with the analysis of the logistics concept of Škoda Auto car production in a foreign plants in India and Vietnam. I find the thesis to be very interesting and well written. It contains many illustrations that are very useful and support the understanding of the topic. Maybe I recommend to shorten the text a bit as the thesis is considerably extensive. I miss more detailed cost analysis for a certain flow of (semi)products and a proposed supply chain despite this kind of information is probably the subject of a trade secret. However, I still can see a space to carry out and share the cost analysis for a sensitively defined scenario quite far from reality that together with PEST analysis and risk analysis provide a reader with a clue for a responsible decision making in this area. I would also recommend to limit the number of internet information sources as these can be biased and to go for the sources used in a scientific works (WoS, Scopus...). I recommend the diploma thesis for defence and suggest to evaluate it as excellent.
